After choosing from our long list of great activities you’re invited to work out in the gym or treat yourself to a soothing massage and sauna. Then cool off in one of three refreshing pools while your deck chair awaits. Tour the bridge, take in a movie, learn a new dance or teach the instructor a few moves of your own.

When night falls, another kind of fun begins! Join us for a Welcome Aboard

Rum Swizzle Party and meet the ship’s officers at the Captain’s Gala Cocktail Party. Then the curtain rises on exciting entertainment with two different night-club shows every evening at sea. There’s fast-paced excitement in the largest casinos afloat and you can walk away a winner at slots, roulette, blackjack, craps — even the wheel of fortune.

As your unforgettable day winds down, join a few friends in one of our lounges for a nightcap. Dance cheek-to-cheek... you have your choice of three bands and orchestras to serenade you. Or kick up your heels in the glittering discotheque.

Before you return to your comfortable state-

Our attentive staff have dressed in decorative costumes to reflect the theme of the evening. During your meal, you'll be serenaded by singing waiters... and their dancing is not to be believed! "Fun Ship"® meals are always served with an extraordinary amount of fun. Take a seat and you're greeted with a smile and a menu that goes on forever. Start with your choice of tantalizing appetizers, refreshing soups and crisp salads, then select from a list of tempting entrees. Sample savory Filet Mignon. Tender Veal Marsala. Juicy Roast Duckling and fresh Lobster Thermidor. Try any... or all! Second helpings are always our pleasure. Your Wine Steward is always on hand to suggest the perfect vintage to accompany your feast. And dessert? Chocolate Mousse. Baked Alaska. Viennese pastries and freshly made sorbet...

When you cruise with us, the galley never closes. We cap off every evening with a feast for the senses at our Midnight Buffet, followed by a mini-buffet around 1:30 on the Promenade Deck. The highlight of the cruise is our Gala Buffet (on 4 and 7 day cruises only) — it's a culinary achievement.

7 Day Tropical Cruises

Mexican Riviera Puerto Vallarta

This seaside resort is as varied as the colors in her sunset. There's fishing — daily catches of bonito, marlin, tuna and sailfish are not uncommon. For sightseeing, Our Lady of Guadalupe cathedral offers the typical solitude of Spanish architecture.

Activities can range from parasailing to horseback riding, or a simple stroll on Playa del Sol where music fills the air.

Mazatlan

The attractions here are primarily sea-oriented as Mazatlan rests on a peninsula jutting out into the Pacific. Come to sail, water ski and fish; you'll find the waters to your liking. Or stretch out on your own expanse of powder-soft sand and enjoy the exceptional climate. Shopping is spectacular for wood carvings, silver jewelry and precious handicrafts. Leather is an excellent buy, whether you purchase a wallet, golf bag or jacket. And a stop at the Golden Zone shopping area offers great bargains on Mexican arts and crafts.

Cabo San Lucas

After only a few moments in Cabo San Lucas, the word "calm" takes on new meaning. Located at the southern tip of the Baja Peninsula, unique rock formations can be found in almost every cove. Watch for sea lions practically posing for pictures where the Sea of Cortés and the Pacific waters swirl into one. For a special treat, be sure to stop by and watch island artists make black coral jewelry. And for a romantic ending to your visit, stroll along the famous Playa del Amor, the Beach of Love.

7 Day Holiday Cruises

Cozumel, Playa Del Carmen, Mexico

The history here comes from Cozumel's ancient name Cuzmilor, meaning Island of Swallows. It was considered to be Mexico's "Garden of Eden," and today the spirit of Mayan hospitality rules in this heavenly port. Renowned as one of the top dive resorts in the world, snorkelers will delight in Chancanab Lagoon and divers can find excitement along El Cantil and Palancar Reef. Be sure to catch an authentic Mexican show before you leave.

Georgetown, Grand Cayman

Here you'll find the perfect blend of British charm and Caribbean magic. The hallmark of Grand Cayman is Seven Mile Beach, an endless stretch of white sand which runs in a gentle curve along the island's west shore. Follow its path to a giant coral reef and some of the clearest waters you'll ever see. Other attractions include Pedro's Castle and the exotic parrots at Rum Point.

Ocho Rios, Jamaica

The gem of Jamaica, Ocho Rios is an array of rare and beautiful sights... Shaw Park Gardens, a beautiful botanical garden overlooking the Bay... the awe and majesty of Dunn's River Falls, where you'll delight in roaring cascades... Fern Valley, where the ancient rhythms of green rain forests come alive... and the rich history of the Green Grotto Caves.

Nassau, Bahamas

From Fort Fincastle to the eerie dungeons of Fort Charlotte, Nassau is alive with the legends of conquistadors and pirates. Present day Nassau also offers the bargains of the famous straw market with great deals on souvenirs and gifts. And the action is non-stop on Cable Beach at the Cable Beach Casino!

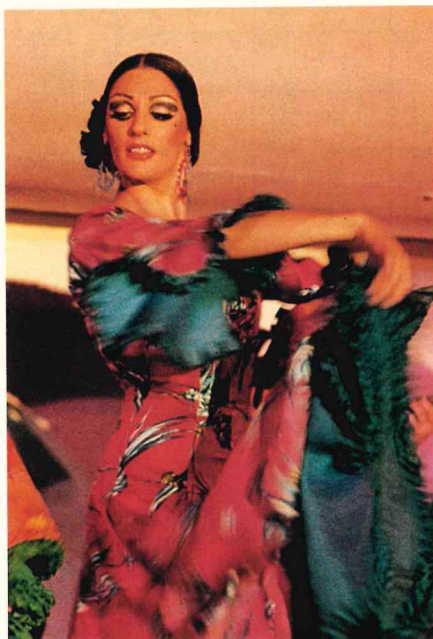

San Juan, Puerto Rico

Fascinating sights by day, scintillating shows by night, San Juan has something for everyone. Stroll cobblestone lanes leading up to the legendary fortress El Morro in Old San Juan. Or visit the burial site of Ponce de Leon at the Cathedral of San Juan Bautista. Then swing into New San Juan with Las Vegas-style reviews and casino action. Shopping is fantastic on the island and all kinds of crafts can be found everywhere. The best buy, however, is classic Puerto Rico rum — a delight!

St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands

The wide, white beaches of Magen's Bay have been rated as some of the most beautiful in all the world. And with emerald green mountains looming in the background, it's easy to lose yourself to complete relaxation. Even the pale white and pastel pink homes built on hillsides add an almost magical touch to the island's solitude. For shopping, the quaint streets of Charlotte Amalie offer more than 100 duty-free boutiques filled with fantastic crystal and fine china at a discount.

7 Day Celebration Cruises

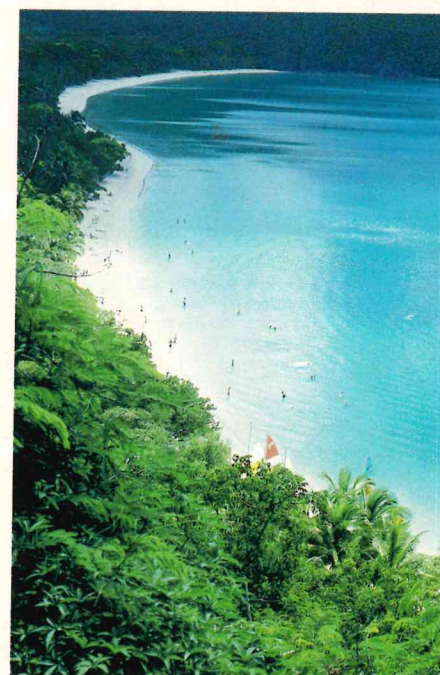

San Juan, Puerto Rico

Fascinating elements combine past and present on this incredible island. By day, Old San Juan reveals an ancient city of history and culture with famous sites such as El Morro fortress. The Church of San Jose, the second oldest church in the Western Hemisphere, is also an exciting stop for a look back into history. By night, New San Juan sparkles with glittering nightclubs, shows and gambling casinos.

St. Maarten, Netherland Antilles

While the North is French and the South is Dutch, both of these distinct cultures live side by side on the smallest territory in the world. A tempting variety of Dutch chocolates and cheese can be found in Philipsburg and the latest Parisian fashions and perfumes are popular in Marigot. After bargain hunting, the alluring St. Maarten beach life awaits.

St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands

As the capital and largest city of the U.S. Virgin Islands, St. Thomas' Charlotte Amalie lies on a spectacular natural bay, perfect for sight-seeing and shopping. Your dollar goes far here in one of the few duty-free ports on U.S. soil. Serene beaches offer a contrasting solitude if you're looking for privacy. St. Thomas is truly a treat for the senses!

Responsibility: Carnival Cruise Lines is not responsible for the actions of independent contractors such as airlines, railroad companies, tour operators or ground transporters. Carnival denies any responsibility or liability for late arrival of your flight or train or for any illness, injury, damage, loss of cruise time or other irregularities resulting therefrom. Carnival's responsibility does not extend beyond the vessels. You are responsible for arriving at the respective ports on time for embarkation and for joining the vessel at its next port of call if, for any reason, you miss a scheduled sailing. Carnival reserves the right to refuse or discontinue passage to anyone when, in Carnival's judgment, it would be considered a risk to his own well being or that of any other passenger.

Minor Passengers: Passengers under the age of 18 years must be accompanied by an adult of at least 21 years in the same cabin. Infants must be at least 4 months old to be eligible to travel.

Insurance: We highly recommend that all passengers purchase a short-term travel insurance policy covering trip cancellation, baggage and accidents. Depending on the policy, you will be protected against these eventualities to the extent you choose to be covered. Liability of Carnival is limited to baggage, contents and personal possessions to a maximum of $100 per adult passenger.

Price Guarantee: Although Carnival Cruise Lines reserves the right to increase published fares without prior notice, fully paid passengers or deposited passengers will be protected at these published rates. Port charges are subject to change without notice.

Advanced or Delayed Sailings: In the event of strikes, lockouts, riots and stoppage of labor from whatever cause, or for any other reason whatsoever, the ship owner may at any time cancel, advance or postpone any scheduled sailing and may, but is not obliged to, substitute another vessel and shall not be liable for any loss whatsoever to passengers by reason of such cancellation or substitution.

Change in Itinerary: Carnival Cruise Lines reserves the right to cancel or substitute any scheduled port of call at any time and for any reason whatsoever, without prior notice and shall not be liable for any loss to passengers by reason of such cancellation or substitution.

Baggage Assistance: Porters are available at the pier during embarkation to take baggage from curbside to your cabin. Valuables, breakable items and hand luggage must be carried on and off the vessel by the passenger. Please be sure each piece of luggage has a tag listing your name, ship and cabin number. Customary tip is 50¢ a bag. We recommend that passengers lock their luggage before placing it outside their stateroom the evening before departure. If a passenger chooses to have carry-on luggage transported by porters, any problems resulting therefrom are the responsibility of the passenger. Porters are not employees of Carnival Cruise Lines.

Foreign Purchases: Residents of the U.S. are permitted up to $800 (retail) of foreign purchase duty-free for cruises which call at St. Thomas, including one gallon of liquor per adult, provided the liquor plus $400 (retail) of other merchandise is purchased in the U.S. Virgin Islands. For all other cruises, U.S. residents are allowed to bring in $400 of duty-free merchandise (retail); passengers who are at least 21 years of age may include one quart of liquor.

Medical Services: The ships' infirmaries are equipped to treat minor non-emergency matters. A doctor is available at a customary charge to render services per the passengers' request.

Physical Disability: Any physical disability requiring special treatment must be reported to the cruise line when reservation is made. Disabled passengers must be self-sufficient and travel with a companion who will take responsibility for any physical assistance needed during the cruise and in case of an emergency. Passengers and their companions must sign a statement releasing Carnival Cruise Lines of any and all responsibility associated with their disability relative to use of shipboard facilities, and in case of any emergency. Passengers confined to a wheelchair must make independent arrangements for airport/pier transfers through their travel consultant. These arrangements are not included in our Fly Aweigh® Program. The cruise line reserves the right to refuse or revoke passage to anyone who is, in the judgment of the line, in such physical or mental condition as to be unfit or unsafe for travel or who may require care and attention beyond that which the cruise line can provide. Carnival Cruise Lines can not be held responsible for any expenses incurred as a result of such determinations.

Dining Room Reservations: Meals are served on board in two sittings — main and late. Dining preference can be requested by your travel consultant at time of booking. Your travel consultant should also be advised if you'd like to sit with friends, or at a non smoking table. No requests are guaranteed. Your table assignment will be confirmed at the pier.

Dining times below are subject to change:

	Main Sitting	Late Sitting
Breakfast (in port)	6:45 a.m.	8:00 a.m.
Breakfast (at sea)	7:45 a.m.	9:00 a.m.
Luncheon	12 noon	1:30 p.m.
Dinner	6:00 p.m.	8:00 p.m.

For your pleasure and convenience, you can enjoy breakfast in your stateroom every morning until 10:00 a.m. or on deck. A light buffet lunch is also served on deck, in addition to the luncheon served in the dining room.

Parking at Pier: Guarded outdoor parking facilities are available at the pier in Miami, Ft. Lauderdale and Los Angeles for $5 per day, payable to the parking attendant. No advance reservation is necessary. (Rates subject to change without notice.) Parking facilities are owned and operated by the port authorities.

Personal Funds: It is wise to carry travelers checks which may be cashed at the Purser's Office. Ashore, it is best to carry some U.S. money in small denominations (i.e. $5's and $10's), plus change for occasional tipping. During your cruise you may cash one personal check of up to $100 when accompanied by an American Express Card. Shops on board and most larger shops in port honor Visa, MasterCard and American Express.

Tipping: It is up to each passenger how much he wishes to tip on the last day of the cruise, which is the customary time to extend gratuities. Carnival Cruise Lines recommends the following amounts. Cabin Steward: $2.50 per person, per day. Waiter: $2.50 per person, per day. Busboy: $1.25 per person, per day. Personnel such as wine stewards, bar waiters, bellboys and deck stewards may be tipped as service is rendered. We suggest 15% of the bill. Contact the Purser or Cruise Director if you seek further assistance in this area. Prepaid gratuities are available upon request.

Personal Services: For your convenience, at a charge, a beauty/barber shop, as well as a masseuse, is available on board. Exercise equipment and sauna are available at no charge.

Visitors: Please ask your travel consultant to call our office for details relative to our visitor policy which varies by port of embarkation.

Clothing: Casual attire is in order during the day, both on ship and ashore. For one or two nights formal dress or dark suit is suggested. The rest of the evenings the dress code ranges from sport coat and tie to casual clothing.

Bon Voyage Party Information: Passengers planning a bon voyage party on board the vessel the day of sailing are required to finalize arrangements with their travel consultant no later than 30 days prior to sailing. Payment in full is required at that time. Refer to visitor policy above.

Cruise Hints: A useful brochure entitled "Welcome Aboard" will be sent to you with your documents. This booklet contains a wealth of information to assist the novice or veteran cruiser.
